CELEBRATING UNIVERSAL LIFE ENERGY

Dreams...The Magic Within

The premise for this year's Viamede retreat is "Where The Dream and the Path Become One". What are dreams? Everyone dreams, and everyone has a dream. What impact do they have on our lives, on the lives of others and on our world? Edgar Cayce said "Dreams provide an avenue of expression for that part of ourself that knows both our history and our potential as a human and spiritual being. Dreams may be physical, mental or spiritual, and may deal with all manner of manifestations".

A dream that I had shared with my children when they were little, and now wanted to share again with them and their children, was to visit an ageless place to experience with them all the magic, the joy and the excitement of the Magic Kingdom. Why here - because this was the manifestation of Walt Disney, one man's dream. His dream was to bring families together to share in laughter, fun and the joy of remembering the child within. Chance had it one day when I was talking to my five grandchildren, they told me there was a "special" place where they could meet their favorite story book and video characters in real life. I remembered past play days and Halloweens as they dressed and talked like their beloved characters. Through the magic of playtime the dream became a reality.

They embraced the qualities of the heroes and princesses in their own dream world. I said "let's go"!

Together, my dream and theirs became manifest. As a family of eleven we journeyed to Disneyworld, in Florida this past June. I watched the excitement in their eyes as they stepped into the Magic Kingdom. The buildings, the colours, the energy, and the beauty of a storybook coming to life. We walked into that famous fairy castle that opens all the Disney movies. It was real! In the castle, we had breakfast with Cinderella. Here, their dream world was alive as they talked with and hugged these beloved characters. It was surreal and yet seemed so normal. It was connecting the magic of intent and imagination into the magic of reality. More than all of this, was my dream of being there and sharing these childhood memories with them, memories of their grandparents and the good times spent with each other. Memories to last a lifetime. Yes, dreams do come true.

What about the dreams that come to us nightly? They are elusive, and so we must catch them to retrieve the messages from our inner being. In keeping my own dream journal, I can see the flow, the path that is starting to appear, a direction that I am inspired to explore for my own personal and spiritual growth. Does the dream take on a life of its own, when we acknowledge that the seed planted in dreamtime is starting to put down roots? Is the magic of its manifestation sparked when we consciously ask ourselves "what if" and "why not"? Edgar Cayce said "Nothing of importance happens to us that is not foreshadowed in our dreams". It is a rehearsal for the real thing. This then allows us to awaken and remember that we are powerful beings and that anything and everything IS possible.

Through our dreams we can start claiming the magic within us watching the miracles as they appear in our world. They show us how to embrace our Source, our path on a human and spiritual level, seeking not merely to understand the principles of life, but to live a life of awareness, compassion and humility. As we expand and grow with our dreams we become aware that everything connects to everything, therefore as we change, the world cannot but change with us.

This is where it all begins for us, in our dreams. As night dreams manifest into daydreams and daydreams into reality, we become mapmakers living consciously our souls journey. Our greatest achievement this

THE GARDEN CORNER

Connection with gardens, even small ones, even potted plants, can become windows to the inner life. The simple act of stopping and looking at the Beauty around us can be prayer
- Patricia R. Barrett, The Sacred Garden

Three years ago the plan for the Reiki Garden was presented at the 'Mad Hatters Garden Party'. Marilyn Symes joined the Garden Committee, bringing with her great organizational skills and a vast knowledge of horticulture which has played a major role in developing our garden plan. Marilyn asked us to have patience and the garden will bloom in abundance...and abundance has definitely arrived.

This garden is really thriving, it is rich with soil, variegated plants, colourful flowers, song birds, lovely butterflies, lady bugs, yes even the worms are happy!

On May 22, 2007, Kay and Richard Gurbin, Darlene and Brian Awde, Marilyn Symes and Karen Cutler assembled with their tools, work pants, gloves and lots of determination to continue on with the garden projects.

Every garden had the soil replenished with triple mix. Some of this soil was used to shape and fill in the new garden by the birch trees. Many thanks to Kay and Richard who laboured hard on this project. Marilyn designed this new garden space, donated many plants from her own garden and planted them around the junipers. That same day Brian levelled the garden path to the tool shed placing five round stones and surrounding it with pea gravel. This path adds another element to the garden and also helps to keep mud out of the tool shed. Darlene reorganized the stones around the Buddha; while adding some plants from her own garden. Karen helped with weeding, soil disbursement and anywhere help was needed. Marilyn and Kay worked with the peonies to cleanse them for a fresh start.

The outcome of this team work was the satisfaction of completing one more stage of the garden. We celebrated with refreshments and coffee cake while enjoying this lazy, breezy summer's day.

Patience is a virtue...it certainly is evident from the richness of the garden at the Reiki Centre. Be sure to sit in the garden this summer and enjoy the enchantment of this special place - it was created for you.

THE GARDEN COMMITTEE want to thank all the Garden Angel Volunteers for their dedication and contributions. Special thanks to Keri Berthelot for taking care of watering of the gardens.

YEZDI'S BIRTHDAY THANK YOU SPEECH

I am extremely grateful to Annie, Darlene and Brian, Vera and Kaiko, and Kay and Cheryl Cowie, Jim and Cheryl, and all the others involved in this wonderful event this evening for which my main qualification was to be alive at 85.

I grew up in a very small town called Devlali in India. It was a rest camp for the British Army personnel. It had a Zoroastrian temple where my father was the Priest. My mother was married in 1901. Big families were the norm in those days, and my mother had 10, of which I was the youngest and am now the only survivor. I had two sisters and seven brothers. There was always lots of work for us in the house and in the temple. As the family grew, the elder children helped both in the chores of the house and in the temple. We had very little money for things but had great fun in the large compound and garden surrounding our house and the temple. We all had good schooling at the local school and as we finished school we were lucky that each one of us brothers was able to go up to Mumbai for a university education, helped by many scholarships that were available in the community.

One of my sisters died of typhoid at a young age and the other got married and went away. Three of my brothers were able to go abroad for their higher studies and got doctorates, one in commerce, one in metallurgy and one was a gastro entomologist.

As for the Usui Reiki Centre, I thank my lucky stars that Kavasji and Doris introduced Perin and myself to Reiki so many years ago. Seldom in life can you meet a nicer group of people and also be in a place that is a haven of Growth, Peace, Friendliness and Love. I still remember with gratitude the support the Reiki volunteers gave to Perin while she was ill. This centre now has an aura of its own, thanks to the selfless work of so many and the inspiration of its teachers.

Thank you once again for this celebration for my 85th birthday. It has meant so much to me to be a part of this wonderful group.

Message from the Mountaintop

It's time to begin the journey of the Soul, consciously. No more pretending you don't know what we are talking about, for your minds have been opened and we know you hear the call. The call to forgiveness, enlightenment... whatever aspect of Self you have come to experience-it is time to get on with it.

The future is not an event, it is happening in this moment. If you are not doing it NOW, there is no "other" time. The time for being who you are or recognizing who you are becoming in this moment, is NOW. Each time you turn away and say "not now", you are saying no to your Creator and to your creation. You are sticking a cog in the wheel, holding up a miracle, not allowing the very Light which will sweep away your symptoms and excuses. You are simply to allow your heart to speak, and guide you to create miracles.

You are masters of manifestation. Your refusal to believe does not make this truth any less so. Take responsibility for what you are manifesting, so you can become conscious of the role you are playing in the drama you call your life. You are not waiting for something to happen; you are waiting for yourself to begin living your purpose.

Denial doesn't make something disappear; it simply clouds your ability to see clearly or sometimes, at all. Woe be to those who choose to be blind when they can see perfectly well, what their life is showing them, those who choose to live in blame, rather than get off their behinds and make a change.

This world is not happening to you, you are happening to it. Take a good look at yourselves and see the Creator in you, given free reign, on the road to destruction by only thinking of your own survival and comfort. The THEY out there, also have children, grandchildren and hopefully, generations to follow. We are not alone and are not number ONE, but as ONE.

This message is so simple and yet, seems so difficult for humanity to grasp. The ones, seeming to have been given intelligence and choice, can't see the bigger picture. Does what you are choosing this moment lead you toward your goal, or does it postpone it further? Are you living a life of hope and faith that your dreams can come true, or are you self-defeating them before they can even begin to get off the ground? Living in the moment doesn't mean searching for the instant gratification of every whim, craving and desire. It's looking beyond survival of the egoist nature to the sustaining desire of the Spirit, to be made manifest in this plane of reality, or, giving form to Spirit in a material world. We've already proven we can make a body-a bloody masterpiece of work, actually. Now, can we infuse it with the Spirit of Purpose, to make a difference, to lift humanity beyond survival, into abundance - not just for a few but for everyone? How do we turn human suffering into triumph, for those who are giving us an opportunity, to come together and affect change? How do we allow them their success, and the chance to see their life purpose fulfilled?

Look at your whole world's situation, as an experience that we are all having together, and are all responsible to bring to wholeness, every living thing, including the planet. As our teacher Den would say "Look a little deeper, stay a little longer", and let your heart inspire you to discover ways in which you can take your place in the world team, allowing the Light of Love to work through you.

You are a master of manifestation, claim it and start creating miracles in the Name of which you stand, of which you are a partner. Allow your discoveries to be fun and filled with Light. We love you, we hold you, and we encourage you. Blessings to All.

With Love

lifetime is when our dream and our path become one. The realization that, when the dream and the path become one, it leads us straight to Source. It is through service for another, for humanity, and for our world that our magic is lifted and spread abroad going beyond all our expectations, touching the many along the way.

It is time again to remember the child within that still believes in dreams. Tonight, look up into the starry night and sing this magical Disney song:

"When you wish upon a star
Makes no difference who you are Anything your heart desires
Will come to you

If your heart's in your dream
No request is too extreme
When you wish upon a star
As dreamers do

Fate is kind
She brings to those who love
The sweet fulfillment of Their secret longing

Like a bolt out of the blue
Fate steps in and sees you through
When you wish upon a star
Your dreams come true."

Come, let's all dream to again make this world a magical place. It all begins with you!
See you at Viamede!

Sweet dreams
Darlene Awde

Reiki

Reiki means Universal Life Energy. Many cultures dating back to ancient times have had the wisdom and the knowledge that an unseen energy flows through all living things, and is directly related to the quality of health in life. Reiki addresses body, mind and spirit accelerating one's ability to heal one's self. Reiki, as taught by its rediscoverer Dr. Usui, has a simple set of procedures to follow, which were passed down to each of the Reiki Masters who followed his teachings.

Reiki is easy to learn and is simple, effective and safe. Reiki allows anyone to contact this unlimited energy and transmit it through the hands, to themselves and others, creating the space for improved health and enhanced quality of life.
